WALTER JOHNSON DOES TWIRLING

Virginia Loses Third Game to Griffith's Nationals, Though Making Good Showing.

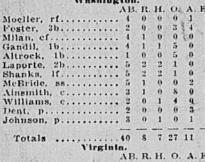

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., March 22 .- Virginia played to-day her third game with Washington, the Nationals win-

Walter Johnson twirled five innings and, fanned eight. He was landed on for two hits in the fifth, giving the Collegians their only run. Dent finished the game. Virginia sent in two freshman twirlers, Anderson and Calloway, and each made a good showing, despite miserable support. The Nationals garnered but seven hits, and only one run was carned. Neff fielded

Laporte and Shanks led with the stick for Washington, the former getting the only extra base hit. Score:

The Metropolitan Golf Association handicap sheet has yet to make its appearance. Because the M. C. A. ratings extend from scratch to 9, inclusive, a great many more M. G. A. amateurs have a chance to receive recognition there than on the national handicap list.

A year ago the Metropolitan list contained six players at scratch, but it is understood that a policy quite similar to that pursued by the national will be adopted. In other words, Jerome Travers, the U. S. G. A. and Metropolitan champion, is expected to

GOLF TOURNEY AT HERMITAGE CLUB

W. W. Neale won the prize in the golf tournament at the Hermitage Golf Club yesterday. The tournament was uniue, consisting in a contest in approaching the minth green. This hole is 110 yards from the tee, an ideal mashle pitch shot.

Mr. Neale's tee shot dropped on green four feet from the cup, and was easily the best shot of teh contest.

A large number of players took part in the tournament. The golf committee is now at work arranging for class tournaments. Announcements will be put on the bulletin board the early part of this week. Players will qualify any day from March 29 to April 5. They are requested to hand in all scores made between these two dates. Each class will have a team of six players. Players with handicap less than twelve will be eligible for team A. Players with handicap cap under seventeen will be eligible for team B. Class C will include all players with handicap over sixteen.

The names of players composing the teams will be posted April S. Any one may challege a player for his position on a team in his class, and if he wins in a series of three games he may take his place on the team. In no case will a player lose his position on the team until his name has been on the bulletin board at least one week. Prizers will be offered in each class. Several of the Hermitage golfers, including Garnett Tabb and W. P. Wood, will leave this week for Pinehurst for the spring tournaments.

Seals Whip Sox Seconds.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
San Francisco, March 22.—The Frisco
Seals proved too fast for the Sox seconds to-day, and they won handlly, 4 to 2. The Sox got only five scattered hits to eight for the visitors. Chief Johnson went through the entire game and demonstrated he has rounded into shape at last. The Scals hit him rather freely during two of the rounds, but he quickly tightened up again. Delhi and a Wisconsin Indian named Cadreau, opposed the Sox. Delhi was good during his five innings, allowing only two hits. Cadreau was easier, but managed to last it out.
